September Leadership Development Lab

Larry W. Dennis, Sr.
President,
Turbo Leadership
Systems®

Join the September
LDL today!

Many of the weekly Turbochargers you read are the stories of engaged leaders in Turbo's Leadership Development Labs. These stories can be funny, and are always informative and inspiring. Now is your chance to write a new inspiring chapter in your journey of growth and achievement in September's Leadership Development Labs.

Your story can include your courageous actions, clear communication, renewed enthusiasm and how you empowered your team to peak performance—all benefits of the LDL.

The LDL is an action-oriented participation program designed for owners, managers, foremen, key staff and crew leaders. The Lab meets one evening per week for ten fun-filled weeks. Labs begin soon after Labor Day in Vancouver, Wilsonville and Beaverton.

With the "Triple A—Action, Application, Accountability"—approach the LDL ensures an engaged, high performing team for your company's success in 2016!

"Unlike most quick-fix consultants, the benefits of Turbo's Leadership Development Lab are long term because students actively practice what they learn, which results in true skill building. Larry's program was a great investment and has helped strengthen our team!"
